

WRJ Social Justice Fund

Social justice has been a key priority for WRJ throughout its 100+ years. One of the cornerstones of WRJ's mission is to strengthen the voice of women so they may "advocate for and promote progressive Jewish values." WRJ educates and mobilizes its members to pursue the crucial work of tikkun olam: repairing our world. Our voice has never been more important than it is now, at this moment in history. Your support of the WRJ Social Justice Fund will allow us to engage women around critical issues and train them as leaders in the pursuit of justice.

WRJ Social Justice Fund Naming and Sponsorship Opportunities

WRJ Social Justice Fund – $500,000 Naming Gift

You can link your name with the pursuit of justice for generations to come through this naming gift of $500,000, which will seed all of WRJ's social justice activities in the coming years.

WRJ Advocacy Conference – $500,000 Naming Gift

A gift of $500,000 will name the WRJ conference designed to introduce women to a variety of public policy issues and educate them about the Jewish values that inform WRJ's advocacy. The program may stand alone or run concurrently with other events as part of WRJ's ongoing conference schedule.

WRJ RAC Legislative Assistant – $360,000 to name or $36,000 annually to sponsor

A dedicated WRJ Legislative Assistant (LA) based at the Religious Action Center (RAC) ensures that WRJ's voice is heard within the halls of power and that our women are informed of critical issues. A gift of $360,000 will name the WRJ RAC LA program or the position may be underwritten for $36,000 annually.

WRJ Social Justice Rabbinic Fellow – $200,000 to name or $20,000 annually to sponsor

Rabbinical students gain critical skills and knowledge through their student internships. This gift will allow WRJ to engage rabbinical students to promote the social justice agenda of WRJ.

WRJ Jane Evans "Pursuit of Justice" Award – $50,000

Established in memory of WRJ's first executive director, The Jane Evans Award is presented to a deserving humanitarian whose life and work exemplify WRJ's values and ideals. Past honorees have included author Letty Cottin Pogrebin, Senator Barbara Boxer, Marcia Greenberger, Lilly Ledbetter, and IRAC director Anat Hoffman.

WRJ Covenant Book – $36,000

WRJ will publish a collection of original prayers, meditations, poetry, and readings written by sisterhood women, students, and clergy on social justice themes. Multiple gifts may be accepted or combined to support this project.

WRJ Social Justice Video – $15,000

Help tell WRJ's inspirational social justice story with a video about our history of leadership and activism. Multiple gifts may be accepted or combined to support this project.

WRJ Social Justice Pillars - $10,000 each

WRJ works on a wide range of issues; you can assure this work continues by designating an issue for support:

Women's Rights
Women's Health

Economic Justice
Civil Liberties

Environmental Concerns
Israel

Pledges for the Social Justice Fund are payable over 2 years unless alternative arrangements are made. A portion of donations will be used for administration, subject to the policies set forth by WRJ. Any excess funds not expended for the specified project will go into the WRJ Social Justice Fund to be used for WRJ's current and future social action work. All donors and sponsors will be acknowledged at the 2019 Advocacy Conference and other appropriate venues.

WRJ Advocacy Conference

In 2019 WRJ will hold its inaugural women's advocacy conference to help women further their leadership skills in the social justice and advocacy arena, empowering them to make a difference in their local Jewish communities and in the world at large. This program will be held in conjunction with the Religious Action Center (RAC) Consultation on Conscience, which is the Reform Movement's premier social justice event for leadership development, community building, and making our collective voices heard.

The WRJ Advocacy Conference will feature briefings and skills-based training on current issues with a women's focus, such as pay equity, reproductive justice, women's health, and violence against women. Those who attend this conference will leave inspired and better prepared to guide their communities as leaders and activists. Please help make our vision for this crucial women's advocacy conference a reality!

2019 WRJ Advocacy Conference Sponsorship Opportunities

WRJ Leadership Reception – $18,000

Feel the magic in the air as women leaders from the policy arena share their wisdom with conference attendees.

WRJ Advocacy Conference YES Fund Event – $18,000

The YES (Youth, Education, & Special Projects) Fund event is a highlight for conference attendees. It features the critical work of the YES Fund, which contributes hundreds of thousands of dollars yearly for scholarships and social justice projects.

Scholars and Musicians in Residence – $15,000

With your support, inspirational spiritual leaders, scholars and musicians will shape our entire event.

Scholarship Grants – $10,000

You can make it possible for women to attend the conference who would otherwise not have that opportunity to strengthen their advocacy skills. Each gift of $10,000 can be designated to a specific cohort, such as women from affiliated sisterhoods, small sisterhoods, young adults, or NFTY members to be used for this or future conferences.

WRJ Advocacy Conference Social Media and Photo Center – $10,000

The social media center may include charging station, photo backdrops; computer station, and other social media and technology opportunities.

WRJ Advocacy Conference Bags with Logo – $5,000

WRJ Advocacy Conference Name Badges with Logo – $5,000

WRJ Advocacy Conference Workshops and Special Events – $1,800

Pledges for the 2019 Advocacy Conference are payable over 2 years and must be paid in full prior to March 2019 unless alternative arrangements are made. A portion of all donations will be used for administration subject to the policies set forth by WRJ. Any excess funds not expended for the specified project will be used to support the advocacy conference or will go into the WRJ Social Justice Fund that will be used to fund WRJ's current and future social action work. All donors and sponsors will be acknowledged at the 2019 Advocacy Conference and other appropriate venues.
