

Sample social media for Upcoming Resources

Twitter

January 22nd marks 50 years since the Roe v. Wade decision. Ahead of the upcoming Repro Shabbat (Feb 17-18, Parshah Mishpatim), we will share resources to guide reflection and uplift our shared commitment to abortion access and reproductive rights. Stay tuned!

Facebook

Announcement! Together, the Reform Jewish Movement and the greater Jewish community will be observing Repro Shabbat February 17th-18th (Parshah Mishpatim). January 22nd will mark 50 years since the Roe v. Wade decision and the first anniversary since the Supreme Court overturned Roe last summer, paving the way for states to ban abortion and restrict other critical reproductive health services. We encourage Reform Jewish communities to incorporate lessons and advocacy around abortion access and reproductive freedom in your programming during this time.

Throughout the month of January, and ahead of Repro Shabbat, we will share more resources to guide reflection, support abortion access, and uplift the Reform Movement's commitment to abortion access and reproductive freedom in your congregations and communities. Stay tuned!

Email Blurb

SAVE THE DATE: Together, as the Reform Jewish Movement and the greater Jewish community, we will be observing Repro Shabbat February 17th-18th (Parshah Mishpatim). January 22nd will mark 50 years since the Roe v. Wade decision and the first anniversary since the Supreme Court overturned Roe last summer, paving the way for states to ban abortion and restrict other critical reproductive health services. We encourage Reform Jewish communities to incorporate lessons and advocacy around abortion access and reproductive freedom in your programming during this time.

Throughout the month of January, we will share more resources to guide reflection, support abortion access, and uplift the Reform Movement's commitment to abortion access and reproductive freedom in your congregations and communities. Stay tuned!