

URJ Camps

A camp for everyone: looking for a Jewish summer camp dedicated to welcoming and valuing each individual camper?

URJ camps create fun, supportive environments where campers can explore, challenge themselves, and develop their passions. Kids of all abilities and backgrounds strengthen their Jewish identities, all while surrounded by beautiful facilities and expert staffs.

Members of the Heartland District are involved with three URJ camps:

- Camp George in Seguin, ON
- Goldman Union Camp Institute (GUCI) in Zionsville, IN
- Olin Sang Ruby Institute (OSRUI) in Oconomowoc, WI

To ensure the success of each camp, Heartland District accepts contributions from sisterhoods/women's groups. The suggested amount is $1 per member of your organization, and additional donations are welcome!

To give to a camp on behalf of your sisterhood/women's group, please click here.

To give as an individual, or to make another contribution to our district, please click here. (These are two separate forms!)