

WRJ YES Fund Grants

The YES (Youth, Education, and Special Projects) Fund provides grants to develop the future leaders of the Reform Movement, advocate for the voice and rights of women, and expand diversity and inclusion throughout the Jewish world.

2025- 2026

Youth

Championing the voices of young people across the world, we support NFTY and URJ camps in North America and youth organizations abroad. WRJ is proud to support the next generation of Jewish leaders as they learn how to make a lasting impact on their peers, their communities, and the world.

Education

We directly support future leaders of Reform Judaism by providing scholarships for rabbinical and cantorial studies at seminaries and Reform institutions around the world. YES Fund grants empower students to transform Jewish spaces, be immersed in training, and facilitate learning.

Special Projects

The YES Fund underwrites programs and organizations that promote pluralism, social justice, and egalitarianism. For more than 70 years, YES grants have advocated for Jewish values, empowered women to lead, and supported the fight for religious freedom in Israel.

Innovation Grants

WRJ's YES Fund continues to uplift innovative programs, projects, and initiatives that are committed to creating welcoming places for our diverse Jewish community in North America. We develop opportunities for newer Jewish organizations establishing safe spaces for all kinds of Jews.
