

Advocacy Update

Sent: March, 20, 2018

After last month's horrific shooting at a high school in Parkland, Florida, NFTY teens are leading the Reform Movement's efforts to stand up for gun violence prevention. These inspiring leaders are gearing up for this weekend's March for Our Lives in Washington, D.C. and in other cities across North America.

Over the years, WRJ has issued multiple statements addressing the issue of gun violence. Regardless of these efforts, there has been no significant change in the United States. Enough is enough. WRJ stands with the rest of the Reform Jewish Movement against gun violence.

Together, #JewsDemandAction.

If you are planning to attend the March for Our Lives in Washington, D.C., register to join NFTY for the march. Due to security concerns, registration is required.

Attending a local March for Our Lives event? Connect with other Reform Jews at marches in your city.

In advance of this weekend's March, here are some resources for you to use:

- Share photos and social media posts from with the hashtag #JewsDemandAction to stand together against gun violence. You can also show your support by changing the frame on your Facebook profile picture.
- Find a comprehensive list of activist resources to prepare for the weekend.
- Need some creative sign ideas? Here are 6 Jewish ideas for your march signs.
- Last week on March 14th, the one month anniversary of the shootings in Parkland, teens led a national school walkout. Experience the walkout through the eyes of NFTYites.
- Read up on 6 ways to support Jewish student's gun violence prevention efforts.
- Earlier this month, recent Marjory Stoneman Douglas high school graduate, Abby Brafman, addressed WRJ women at the Fried Leadership Conference 2018 in Nashville, Tennessee. Watch Abby's powerful speech here.
- Rabbi Rick Jacobs talks about gun violence prevention work on ReformJudaism.org's weekly Torah podcast, On the Other Hand: Ten Minutes of Torah. Download the most recent episode to hear Rabbi Jacobs talk about what we have done and where we are going.
- Urge your member of Congress to take action to prevent gun violence.
- Find all of WRJ's resources on gun violence prevention here.

Visit the NFTY Gun Violence Prevention Page