

Advocacy Update

Sent January 13, 2011

Debbie generously shared her enormous talent, passion, and warmth with WRJ at our assemblies and through her beautiful songs. Debbie will long continue to be with us in her music and the liturgy she created which are so much part of our worship and programming.

Debbie and her music have so deeply touched WRJ women throughout North America, and so many of us resonated to her singing and have even danced, as one, to her melodies that tears come to our eyes with our memories.

When Debbie sang for WRJ -- it was a gift to all of us. She suggested that her fee be placed in a WRJ Debbie Friedman endowment fund. The Debbie Friedman Music Fund is for programs or projects focusing on Jewish music. Make a donation to the Debbie Friedman Music fund in memory of Debbie, and help contribute to continuing the joy she brought to us with her songs.

To donate:

- Send a check to WRJ with Debbie Friedman Music Fund on the memo line.
- Call the office to make a credit card donation.
