

Advocacy Update

Sent January 20, 2011

Sisterhood and District Presidents: Share Your Programs and Projects

It is once again time to apply for an Or Ami "Light of My People" Award for Excellence in Sisterhood Programming. The 2011 awards will be announced and presented at the WRJ 48th Assembly, which will be held at the Gaylord National Hotel Convention Center in National Harbor, MD (in the Washington D.C. area) from December 14 to 18, 2011.

The guidelines and application for the Or Ami Award are now available.

The Or Ami application and selection procedures have been green since 2009; all Or Ami communications will be handled electronically in order to save paper and material resources.

- Your application must also be submitted electronically.
- Please be sure to submit your applications to WRJ between February 28, 2011 and April 22, 2011.
- All projects and programs will be publicized by Women of Reform Judaism. The program ideas will be available for all sisterhoods to use and will reflect our work together to fulfill the traditional Jewish mandate of tikkun olam, working towards healing our fractured world.

We urge you to submit your successful projects or programs for consideration for an Or Ami Award. Bring recognition to your sisterhood and share your best efforts with other sisterhoods.

We look forward to receiving your submissions and to seeing you at the 48th assembly.