

Fried Women's Conference

Sponsorship Opportunities

The WRJ Fried Women's Conference (FWC) is a weekend-long experience where more than 300 attendees from all over North America hone leadership skills and deepen connections with other women, leaders, and Women of Reform Judaism (WRJ). During this weekend, attendees will take advantage of workshops that teach about best practices for leadership, create connections and network with other WRJ and Reform women, experience meaningful worship, and learn from poignant speakers. Attendees will leave feeling rejuvenated and, with the support of their WRJ sisters, be better prepared to guide their own sisterhoods and serve as leaders in their communities.
